Kansai Paint Pakistan

Kansai Paint Pakistan:

Kansai Paint Pakistan is a wholly owned company of Kansai Paint Middle East (KPME), and a subsidiary of Kansai Paint Japan.

Kansai Paint (Private) Limited, Pakistan has established a modern, world class manufacturing facility in Lahore. It is the first paint plant in Pakistan, which has the capability of manufacturing CED (Cathode Electro Deposition) paint for the Automotive OEM sector based on full transfer of technology and back-up support from Kansai Paint Japan.

Furthermore, the establishment of the manufacturing facility has also led to the introduction of a whole range of other products including industrial, automotive and decorative products-all leveraging on the cutting-edge technology of Kansai Paint. Kansai Paint Pakistan is emerging as the leading coatings solution providers in Pakistan.

Kansai offers its customers complete coatings solutions that start from understanding customer needs to customer satisfaction. Kansai has technology back-up and its dedicated resources continuously engage with the customers to provide on-line and on-site servicing. Being a color-creating manufacturer, predicting the trends in colors that may be popular in the generations to come, and then manufacturing those colors of the future, also remains another important aspect of Kansai's business. These entire enable Kansai Paint Pakistan to provide value added solutions for each customer.
